ABOUT ME

I have been an internet boy since I was a kid. My geekness grew up with me across the years and finally made me fall in love with the code. Now I am learning all the basics to become a full stack javascript developer.

Also, I am a proactive person who loves optimization. When I was entrepreneur I learned a lot about productivity, project management and agile methodologies.

I feel fine with macOS, but I really enjoy coding on Linux.

WORK EXPERIENCE

JUNIOR BACKEND DEVELOPER
